Director of Education Lorel Trumier comments on behalf of the staff and students of Prince Albert Catholic Schools, “It is imperative to have local voice support the education process of our children as our province faces many opportunities and challenges. Our school division has had many dedicated individuals who have helped to provide quality Catholic education. For over 137 years, all Boards of Education have done a tremendous job preserving Catholic education. We are grateful for the commitment and dedication of these extraordinary people who have stepped forward to our local Catholic educational community. We look forward to working with the newly elected and re-elected trustees to continue this endeavour!”

There are 3200 students and seven schools in the Prince Albert Roman Catholic Separate School Division No. 6.
